GENERAL REFERENCES

Subdivision of land — See Ch. 179.

§ 100-1. Plans required.

From and after the passage of this chapter, it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to construct, install or open any drainage facilities of any kind whatsoever within the Borough of Camp Hill, Pennsylvania, without first submitting suitable plans therefor to the Council of said Borough for its approval. Such plans shall show the course, structure and capacity of said drainage facilities and also any other or further details which may be required by the Borough Council.

§ 100-2. Plan modifications and approval.

The Council may alter such plans and specify any changes or modifications of any kind whatsoever which it may deem necessary with respect thereto and may make its approval of such plans subject to any such alterations, changes or modifications. Any plans, when so approved, shall be signed by the President of the Borough Council and shall be filed in the office of the Borough Manager, where the same shall be available to public inspection. No drainage facilities shall be installed, constructed or opened except in strict accordance with the plans so approved by the Council. The approval of said plans shall be authorization to the applicant who submitted said plans to proceed with the installing, constructing or opening of said drainage facilities in strict accordance with said plans.

§ 100-3. Remedies for violations.

In case any structure is erected, altered, repaired, converted or maintained or land is used in violation of any of the provisions of this chapter or of any regulations made pursuant hereto, in addition to other remedies provided by law, any appropriate action or proceeding, whether by legal process or otherwise, may be instituted or taken to prevent such unlawful erection, alteration, repair, conversion, maintenance or use, to restrain, correct or abate such violation, to prevent the occupancy or use of said land or to prevent any illegal act or use in or about such premises.

§ 100-4. Violations and penalties. [Amended 12-9-1987 by Ord. No. 891, approved 12-9-1987]

For any and every violation of the provisions of this chapter, the owner, general agent or contractor of premises where such violation has been committed or shall exist and the general agent, architect, contractor or any other person who knowingly commits, takes part in or assists in any such violation or who maintains any premises in which any such violation shall exist shall be liable, on summary conviction thereof, to a fine or penalty not exceeding $300 for each and every offense, and whenever such person shall have been notified by the Borough Manager or by service of summons or warrant in a prosecution or in any other way that he is committing such violation of this chapter, each day that he shall continue such violation after each notification, and a period of 10 days within which to make abatement, shall constitute a separate offense, punishable by a like fine or penalty. Such fines or penalties shall be collected as like fines or penalties are now, by law, collected. In default of the payment of said fine, such person shall be sentenced to imprisonment in the Cumberland County Jail for a period not exceeding 30 days.
